David H. Rollo

Better questions create better lives.

Keynotes, fireside conversations, and working sessions on reinvention, better questions, and choosing a life on purpose.

THE TALK

David doesn't give pep talks. He walks a room up the question ladder, from the questions we hide behind to the ones that actually change a decision, through twenty years of candid, often funny, deeply human story.

SIGNATURE TOPICS

Better Questions Create Opportunities

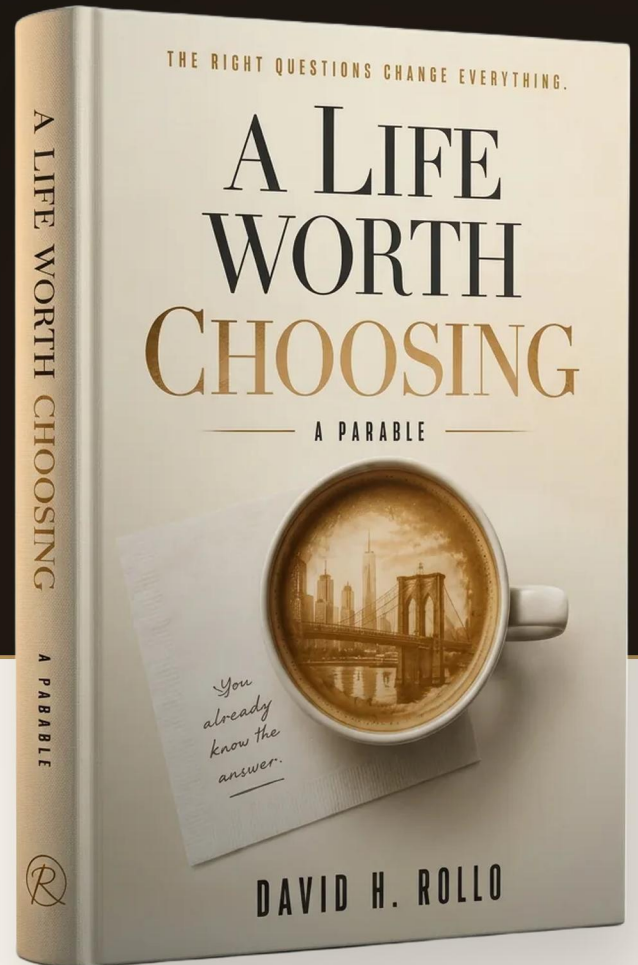

Starting over at 40+ in the age of AI. Stop asking "Are you hiring?" and start finding the problems nobody owns.

Building a Life Worth Choosing

The keynote behind the book: trading default momentum for a life chosen on purpose.

Stop Solving the Wrong Problem

For founders and teams: every team is sprinting. The risk is sprinting at the wrong problem.
